THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Supplementary Permit No. 29-a-1924.
Northwestern Fisheries Company.
Chignik Cannery.

December 14, 1923.

A permit, No. 29-1924, having been granted to the Northwestern Fisheries Company under date of October 25, 1923, for the operation of a salmon cannery at Chignik, within the Chignik District of the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation, wherein it was specified that in lieu of other fishery operations heretofore conducted by the Alaska Packers Association, the Columbia River Packers Association, and the Northwestern Fisheries Company at Chignik, distribution of salmon should be made at a weir to be constructed at or below the head of the lagoon, the said permit is hereby modified as follows:

1. That the company may construct and operate any two of the three Chignik salmon traps operated by it in the season of 1923, or if desired may substitute a trap in Mud Bay for one of the two here authorized.
2. That a weir is to be constructed by the Bureau of Fisheries in the Chignik River for the enumeration of the spawning escapement and not to exceed fifty (50) per cent of the red-salmon run shall be taken in the salmon traps authorized to be operated by the three companies named at Chignik and in Mud Bay.
3. That the company is also permitted to construct and operate one salmon trap in Amber Bay, but any red salmon bound for the Chignik River which may be captured in this trap shall be included in the fifty (50) per cent of the Chignik red-salmon run allotted for commercial uses.
4. That in view of the restrictions above imposed no case limit is set on the pack of this cannery for the season of 1924.
5. That the canneries of the Alaska Packers Association, Columbia River Packers Association, and Northwestern Fisheries Company at Chignik are permitted to operate conjointly the fishing gear allotted to them, and may divide the proceeds of the fishery on an agreed basis.
6. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
